

Lore of the Land and the Sorry Resource Kit

- LOTL
- ‘Visit’ the Gunditjmara region of southwestern Victoria. Investigate its location and history.
 - ‘Meet’ Banjo Clarke, Iris Lovett-Gardiner and Tina Saunders, three of the elders of this community.
 - Listen to Banjo, Iris, Tina and Patricia as they share their connections with the land. Compare their perspective on land with the land use maps (LANDUSE—PLACE)
 - Explore the cultural forms through which this Indigenous community celebrates, maintains and expresses its values and beliefs — in music, art, story, song and ceremony.
 - Extend your knowledge of the region and the community by consulting the section UNDERSTANDING—ADDITIONAL RESOURCES—GUNDITJMARTA.
- THE SORRY
KIT
- Celebrate the action taken by Indigenous and non-Indigenous people at the Tree of Understanding Reconciliation event at the 1998 Port Fairy Folk Festival to achieve reconciliation.
- LOTL
- Consider what actions you might take to achieve reconciliation. Make some choices about what you’ll do. Share your experiences in the Reconciliation Convention on the web at:
<http://www.loreoftheland.com.au/forum>